

We're excited to announce that two new attorneys are joining the Strategic Health Law team.

Lori Cowdrey Benso

Lori Benso's career has spanned health plan legal departments, senior business management and government. Having managed large teams and billion-dollar budgets, she understands how health plans operate. She offers clients a wealth of experience and perspective regarding regulatory compliance, government relations, lobbying, licensing, contract negotiations and strategic planning.

Prior to joining Strategic Health Law, Lori was Senior Vice President, Legal Services and General Counsel of Health Alliance Medical Plans. She is based in Champaign, Illinois.

Sandra Durkin

A persuasive litigator and thoughtful counselor, Sandra Durkin represents health plans in all manner of business disputes, including payor-provider contract disputes, False Claims Act recoveries, class action litigation and ACA contests, including fighting for the distribution of risk corridors payments. Not only a tenacious advocate, she helps clients proactively mitigate risk in a changing legal and regulatory landscape.

Sandra comes to Strategic Health Law from Butler Rubini Saltarelli & Boyd LLP in Chicago, Illinois.

With the addition of these two talented lawyers, we've deepened our litigation bench and broadened our business counsel services. If you would like to learn more about our growing team and expanding capabilities, please get in touch.
